New & Improved Services

Change in Booking Procedure for Internet

In order to better serve our patrons, we are changing the way we limit Internet usage from 1 60 session per day to a possible 120 minutes per day. This will allow patrons, depending on availability, to have up to 2 hours of Internet use either in our Sit Down area, Express Area or a combination of both.

Coming Soon!!- Library Value Calculator

Early in April you will be able to calculate how much money you save by using the Public Library. This link online calculator will be available from our homepage at www.brockvillelibrary.ca

New Express Internet Station

We have added a fourth Express Internet Station. This station is a fully accessible sit-down station equipped with ZoomText software and keyboard, as well as a large screen monitor.

Newly Expanded Romance Collection

We have recently added an additional spinner in the Harlequin collection. This will allow for growth in this collection.

Expanded Video Collection

We have added extra shelving to this collection to allow for growth and to make browsing easier.

New Chairs in our Reading Area

We have recently purchased two new comfortable chairs in our Reading Area.
