Hints:

EBSCOHost

When searching EBSCOHost, under the search box you will see an area called “Limit Your Search”. Be sure to click on “Full Text Only”. Some articles give just the citation, and not the full text article which will be of no use.

Novelist

On the main page, Novelist offers support. If you click on “Learning Center”, there are tutorials you can take to help orientate yourself with this database.

Knowledge Ontario

If you click on the Thomson Gale databases, you can search multiple databases at once or just select one.
