

Special Services Policy

Inquiries should be made through the staff at the circulation desk regarding the following services:

- § Shut-in service: volunteers deliver library materials once a month to the home bound library patrons. This service is not available to people in retirement or nursing homes.

- § Talking-book service: Patrons with vision problems or physical handicaps who are unable to handle print materials are eligible for a talking-book service that is coordinated through the Ottawa Public Library. The patron must have a certificate from his/her physician.
