Why Read To Your Toddler

The most rapid time of a child's intellectual development is between birth to four. There is no better way to foster and enrich your child's development than through reading. Language is central to learning.

Tips on Reading to Your Toddler

- .Choose books that you will enjoy reading.
- .Point to the pictures while reading the text.
- .Share books with your toddler on a routine basis.
- .Keep some board books within your toddler's reach, in the crib, on the change table, on the floor. They will be a natural part of his or her life from the start!
